LOCAL MATTERS.

The Late Peachy R. Grattan, Esq. A meeting of the bench and bar of Rich-mond was held yesterday morning at the Court of Appeals to take action in regard to the death of the late Peachy R. Grattan, THE CIRCULATION OF THE DISPATCH IS LARGER THAN THE COMBINED CIRCULATION OF ALL THE OTHER DAILY NEWS-PAPERS OF THE CITY.

At 11 o'clock the meeting, comprising nearly the entire bar of the city, was called to order by Colonel H. C. Cabell, on whose motion Judge Joseph Christian, of the Court of Appeals, was called to the chair, and Mr. James M. Matthews appointed secretary. Judge Christian, after briefly stating the object of the meeting and paying a beautiful tribute to Mr. Grattan's worth as a man and excellence and ability as a lawyer, appointed the following gentlemen a commit-tee to draft sultable resolutions:

Messrs. Robert Stiles, W. W. Crump, Robert Ould, W. W. Cosby, Thomas J. Evans, John H. Guy, H. C. Cabell, James Pleasants, James Caskie, R. H. Steger, E. Y. Cannon, and R. G. Scott.

A Brilliant Morriage.—The marriage of Mr. Robert Wood and Miss Hannab Cole, at the hospitable old Virginia residence of Haley Cole, Esq., her father, on Tuesday last, was an occasion that witnessed the consummation of many hopes long fondly and Chesterfield gallants. No young cou-ple in the whole county could boast of more attached or appreciative friends than "these twain" thus made one flesh. The ceremony was followed by many warm, earnest, heart-felt wishes fervently expressed by assembled friends for long life and happiness to the newly-wedded pair. Then followed one of those characteristic entertainments peculiar to Virginia and Virginians, in which the feast of reason was followed by the flow of soul in rarely-enjoyable propor-tions. Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside at their residence, on the Broadrock road, about twelve miles from Manchester.

Church Services.—The thanksgiving services in Meade-Memorial church and in the Methodist church yesterday were quite well attended, considering the unfavorable state of the weather and the fact that Man-chester people have not yet attained to a full appreciation of the virtues of such observances. DOWN-TOWN MERCHANT having A DOWN-TOWN All passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by coming convinced that MRS. WINSLOWS
SOOTHING SYRUP was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. Our reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents indulged and the bringing together of an uithout steep. Returning home the day following, unusually large aggregation of lovely ladies the fither found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some d duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden a derful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering, crying babies and restices nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Sy-rup never yet failed to relieve the baby and overup never yet tailed to believe come the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all druggists; 25c. a bottle. no 25-codiw
